

AMI in Houston January 3-5, 2016

The largest national conference geared toward nonprofit college students is coming to Houston, Texas in January. Join the movement working to create a talented, prepared nonprofit workforce!

About the Institute

The Alliance Management Institute (AMI) is a capstone experience for students seeking the Certified Nonprofit Professional (CNP) credential. The purpose of the conference is to expose future social sector leaders to a vibrant learning experience that promotes best practices, innovative thinking and awareness of the full scope of the sector.

Participants have the opportunity to:

- Network with national nonprofit thought leaders
- Participate in real and mock interviews with prospective employers
- Attend workshops that focus on innovation in the sector, strategic partnerships and social change
- Serve as consultants, solving real issues facing local nonprofit organizations

Learn More

www.amiconference.org
crystal.henry@nonprofitleadershipalliance.org
(816) 463-9482

Nonprofit
Leadership Alliance

Certified to Change the World

Alliance Management Institute

A Conference on Creating Social Change

January 3-5, 2016
Houston, Texas

- What: Alliance Management Institute
- Who: 500 undergraduate and graduate students, 50 speakers, 150 volunteers, 25 exhibitors
- When: January 3-5, 2016
- Where: Hyatt Regency Houston
Houston, Texas
- Objective: Building a network of specially-trained professionals adept at creating systems-level, social change.

The Nonprofit Leadership Alliance is a 501(c)3 organization.

www.amiconference.org