

AMI in Denver January 3-5, 2017

The largest national conference geared toward nonprofit college students is coming to Denver in January. Join the movement working to create a talented, prepared nonprofit workforce!

About the Institute

The Alliance Management Institute (AMI) is a capstone experience for students seeking the Certified Nonprofit Professional (CNP) credential. The purpose of the conference is to expose future social sector leaders to a vibrant learning experience that promotes best practices, innovative thinking and awareness of the full scope of the sector.

Participants have the opportunity to:

- Network with national nonprofit thought leaders
- Participate in real and mock interviews with prospective employers
- Attend workshops that focus on innovation in the sector, strategic partnerships and social change
- Serve as consultants, solving real issues facing local nonprofit organizations
